As to "impudence."—We leave the decision to the citizons of the town which is the most "impudent"—the simple inquiry in your local column, regarding the assets and disbursement, as per "statement" of the last Board; or, the "Denial," in entirety? An enquiry which any citizen has the right to make; and more, which it is the duty of every citizen to make, should the statement be unsatisfactory—we think the demand of $100 shows considerable "cheek."

As to "secrecy."—Which is most liable and of "statement" in which the demand of $100 shows considerable and of the course of the statement be unsatisfactory—we think the late Secretary did not "retort on "cheek."

Possibly champagne is considered by the Board as "Material," and the drinking thereof as "Labor?" We acknowledge, however, that it is a "Labor" to drink some kind of champagne.

As to "Mr. Denny."—If the Board of '71 charged the $319.68 as assets to the late Board ('71) it was the bounden duty of the late Board to call Mr. D. to account. If they did not, they were derelict in their duty. If they did, they were cognizant that Mr. D. hold receipts for nearly the whole amount; and charging the same to tile present Board was improper and "secret," to use mild terms, and calculated to misinform and mislead taxpayers and the new Board.

-The heated term-June term of Court. A jury was called in by the Sheriff and sworn to inquire into the unsoundness of mind of Elizabeth A. Yerkes, residing in the 4th District. The jurors signed an inquisition to that effect, and she was direct-to be taken to the Maryland Hospital. No jury or witnesses of any kind are required to attend at this term and consequently its session is of little interest - Money sold at meeting of Elkton or importance-except in so far as to ob-

Alexander Johnson, alias Cuff, (colored,) was the prisoner who accomplished the feat of scaling the wall, on Friday afternoon of last week. The prisoners are allowed the yard for exercising, which is cool and shady, and by tearing in strips four heavy blankets and tying them togother, a rope was formed long enough and of sufficient strength to reach the top of the wall and to bear the weight of a man. A rope having been formed, a stone weighing five or six pounds was tied in one end and contained in successable for its must inevitably extend to an attack the sum of the manner that it is a "Labor" to drink some kind of champagne.
